From the President's Gavel

by Don, N9NYX WCRA President

As we approach the end of the year it seems that this is a good time to reflect on where we as a club have come and where we are attempting to get to in the next year.

Several items were accomplished and several were still left to be worked on. We had a profitable Hamfest and after two years at the Expo venue we are prepared for what we have to do next month. We as a Club overcame some difficult times in whether to acquire and what type of vehicle to acquire to replace the old truck. Our new trailer has arrived and club energy is now being directed toward outfitting the inside and determining the type of artwork for the outside.

Two of the major disappointments from my standpoint is that we are still not back up the COD tower and out of Larry and Carol's home. As a Cub fan, maybe this is the year. Our membership has fallen around 90 members. This has several ramifications. We have to call on the same individuals to wear many hats or some positions go unfilled. Whether the failure to return to the COD tower and our membership decline may be argued either way. Even if we were on the Esplanade Building as the 440 machine is with its excellent coverage in the Chicago area, members have to want to get on the air and use our systems.

2008 will have its own challenges as every year does, but I would ask that we all pitch in and try to make WCRA's 60th year a one to remember.

See you down the log,
de N9NYX

December QST Reviewed-Field Day Scores

By Jim Ward, W9DHX

CCU FD Results on Page 88 – 4582 points with 20 operators and less than 150 watts—9th from the top of the list in Category 6A. The article starts on page 88 with the comment: “the highest score really isn’t the purpose of Field Day. It’s Field Day “Things” that count.” The author came up with the 10 on his list which will amuse you.

The “ghost writer” is actually “Percy” the FD cartoon “bug” (Bitten by the Bug) who promoted FD this year. You’ll find good pictures on page 20, too.

RADIO HISTORY REVISITED—THE FIRST TRANSATLANTIC BROADCAST

On Dec. 12, 1901, Marconi claimed to hear transatlantic signals originating in Cornwall, UK, at his site in Signal Hill, Newfoundland. The frequency was reported to be 810-879 kHz. Two radio clubs, one in Cornwall and another in Montreal, ran an interesting “revisiting” of the historic event. Read about it on page 42.

MORE MARCONI HONORS

Planners picked the North American side of the ocean for a combined US and Canadian emergency radio demonstration. The Marconi Memorial Cabot Tower building at Signal Hill was chosen by ARRL President Joel Harrison and the RAC President Earle Smith on Sept. 29-30 for a special event. Photos and details are on Page 13.

NEW PORTABLE ANTENNA FITS IN YOUR POCKET.

It has five telescoping elements that are pictured on page 45. QST Editor Steve Ford gives it a thumbs up. It’s $20 plus shipping and covers 2, 1.25, and 70 cm. Available from: www.ee-3.com

NEW PRODUCT TEST – YEASU FT-450 (HF and 6 Meters)

YOU! COULD BE FILLING THIS SPACE WITH AN ARTICLE YOU HAVE WRITTEN.

Old Business, Dale N9JE reported on the lettering and what it will look like on the new club trailer and John N9MWF reported on the antenna system that will be used on the trailer. Mark W9UZ reported that we are currently waiting for our space at Emergency Management where the club trailer will be stored. Thanks to all who have donated funds for the new club trailer. The club trailer committee needs volunteers to help finish out the trailer, if you can help please contact them.

New Business, Mark W9UZ said there is an order going in for club clothing, Jim W9DHX modeled some of the club clothing. You can go to www.hamthreads.com to see what the clothing looks like.

Kent W9NDW DuPage County ARES, presented information about this group and passed out information to those interested.

Bruce K9OZ informed those present that there is a phone sweepstakes coming up and those interested would be welcome to come over and operate at his home. Hope everyone had a good time at Bruce's over the contest weekend.
